² These Global Notes are in addition to any specific notes contained in the Subsidiary Debtors’ Schedules or SoFAs. The fact that the Subsidiary Debtors have prepared a “general note” with respect to any of the Schedules and SoFAs

The Schedules and SoFAs have been prepared by the Subsidiary Debtors' Chief Restructuring Officer and additional personnel at Development Specialists, Inc. (collectively, the "CRO") and are unaudited and subject to further review and potential adjustment and amendment. In preparing the Schedules and SoFAs, the CRO relied on financial data derived from the Subsidiary Debtors' books and records that was available at the time of preparation. The CRO has made reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy and completeness of such financial information; however, subsequent information or discovery of other relevant facts may result in material changes to the Schedules and SoFAs and inadvertent errors, omissions, or inaccuracies may exist. In addition, the Subsidiary Debtors have recently become aware of potential claims and interests against the Subsidiary Debtors, which are still subject to ongoing review and investigation. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve all rights to amend or supplement their Schedules and SoFAs.

Reservation of Rights. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve all rights to amend the Schedules and SoFAs in all respects, as may be necessary or appropriate, including, but not limited to, the right to dispute or to assert offsets or defenses to any claim reflected on the Schedules and SoFAs as to amount, liability or classification of the claim, or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated." Furthermore, nothing contained in the Schedules and SoFAs shall constitute a waiver of rights by the Subsidiary Debtors involving any present or future causes of action, contested matters or other issues under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable non-bankruptcy laws.

Description of the Cases and "As Is" Information Date. On January 12, 2016 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Subsidiary Debtors other than Variant Holding Company, LLC ("Variant") filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.³ The Subsidiary Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107(a) and 1108. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, and no committees have been appointed or designated.

Asset information in the Schedules reflects the Subsidiary Debtors' best estimate of asset values as of the Petition Date. No independent valuation has been obtained.

Basis of Presentation. The Schedules and SoFAs do not purport to represent financial statements prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP"), nor are they intended to fully reconcile to any financial statements otherwise prepared and/or distributed by the Debtors.

Although these Schedules and SoFAs may, at times, incorporate information prepared in accordance with GAAP, the Schedules and SoFAs neither purport to represent nor reconcile to financial statements prepared and/or distributed by the Subsidiary Debtors in and not to others should not be interpreted as a decision by the Subsidiary Debtors to exclude the applicability of such general note to any of the Subsidiary Debtors' remaining Schedules and SoFAs, as appropriate.

accordance with GAAP or otherwise. Moreover, given, among other things, the valuation and nature of certain liabilities, to the extent that the Subsidiary Debtors show more assets than liabilities, this is not a conclusion that the Subsidiary Debtors were solvent at the Petition Date. Likewise, to the extent that the Subsidiary Debtors show more liabilities than assets, this is not a conclusion that the Subsidiary Debtors were insolvent at the Petition Date or any time prior to the Petition Date.

Estimates. To timely close the books and records of the Subsidiary Debtors, the CRO must make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and reported revenue and expenses. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve all rights to amend the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses to reflect changes in those estimates and assumptions.

Confidentiality. There may be instances within the Schedules and SoFAs where names, addresses, or amounts have been left blank. Due to the nature of an agreement between the Subsidiary Debtors and the third party, concerns of confidentiality, or concerns for the privacy of an individual, the Subsidiary Debtors may have deemed it appropriate and necessary to avoid listing such names, addresses, and amounts.

Intercompany Claims. Any receivables and payables between the Subsidiary Debtors and affiliated entities in these cases (each an “Intercompany Receivable” or “Intercompany Payable” and, collectively, the “Intercompany Claims”) are reported as assets on Schedule B or liabilities on Schedule E and Schedule F. These Intercompany Claims include the following components, among others: (1) loans to affiliates, (2) accounts payable and payroll disbursements made out of an affiliate’s bank accounts on behalf of the Subsidiary Debtors, (3) centrally billed expenses, (4) corporate expense allocations, and (5) accounting for trade and other intercompany transactions. These Intercompany Claims may or may not result in allowed or enforceable claims by or against the Subsidiary Debtors, and by listing these claims the Subsidiary Debtors are not indicating a conclusion that the Intercompany Claims are enforceable. Intercompany Claims may also be subject to set off, recoupment, and netting not reflected in the Schedules. In situations where there is not an enforceable claim, the assets and/or liabilities of the Subsidiary Debtors may be greater or lesser than the amounts stated herein. All rights to amend intercompany Claims in the Schedules and SoFAs are reserved.

The Subsidiary Debtors have listed the intercompany payables as unsecured claims on Schedule F. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve their rights to later change the characterization, classification, categorization, or designation of such items.

Insiders. For purposes of the Schedules and SoFAs, the Subsidiary Debtors define “insider” pursuant to section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code as (a) directors, (b) officers, (c) relatives of directors or officers of the Subsidiary Debtors, (d) any managing agent or managing member of the Subsidiary Debtors and (e) entities under common ownership with the Subsidiary Debtors. Payments to insiders listed in (a) through (e) above are set forth on Question 4 of the SoFAs.

Persons listed as “insiders” have been included for informational purposes only. The Subsidiary Debtors do not take any position with respect to whether such individual could successfully argue that he or she is not an “insider” under applicable law, including without limitation, the federal securities laws, or with respect to any theories of liability or for any other purpose.

Excluded Accruals and GAAP Entries. The Subsidiary Debtors' balance sheet reflects liabilities recognized in accordance with GAAP; however, not all such liabilities would result in a claim against the Subsidiary Debtors. Certain liabilities (including but not limited to certain reserves, deferred charges, and future contractual obligations) have not been included in the Subsidiary Debtors' Schedules. Other immaterial assets and liabilities may also have been excluded.

Classification and Claim Descriptions. Any failure to designate a claim on the Schedules as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated" does not constitute an admission by the Subsidiary Debtors that such amount is not "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated." The Subsidiary Debtors reserve the right to dispute, or to assert offsets or defenses to, any claim reflected on its Schedules as to amount, liability or classification or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated."

Listing a claim (i) in Schedule D as "secured," (ii) in Schedule E as "priority" or (iii) in Schedule F as "unsecured nonpriority," or listing a contract in Schedule G as "executory" or "unexpired," does not constitute an admission by the Subsidiary Debtors of the legal rights of the claimant or a waiver of the Subsidiary Debtors' right to recharacterize or reclassify such claim or contract.

Moreover, the Subsidiary Debtors reserve all rights to amend the Schedules and SoFAs, in all respects, as may be necessary or appropriate, including, but not limited to, the right to dispute or to assert offsets or defenses to any claim reflected on the Schedules and SoFAs as to amount, liability or classification of the claim, or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated." Furthermore, nothing contained in the Schedules and SoFAs shall constitute a waiver of rights by the Subsidiary Debtors involving any present or future causes of action, contested matters or other issues under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or other relevant non-bankruptcy laws.

Credits and Adjustments. The claims of individual creditors for, among other things, goods, products, services or taxes are listed as the amounts entered on the Subsidiary Debtors' books and records and may not reflect credits, allowances or other adjustments due from such creditors to the Subsidiary Debtors. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve all of their rights respecting such credits, allowances or other adjustments.

Setoffs. The Subsidiary Debtors may incur setoffs from third parties in their business. Setoffs in the ordinary course can result from various routine transactions, including intercompany transactions, pricing discrepancies, warranty claims and other disputes between the Subsidiary Debtors and third parties. Certain of these constitute normal setoffs consistent with the ordinary course of business in the Subsidiary Debtors' industry. In such instances, such ordinary course setoffs are excluded from the Subsidiary Debtors' responses to Question 6 of the SoFAs. The Subsidiary Debtors reserve all rights to enforce or challenge, as the case may be, any setoffs that have been or may be asserted.

Specific Notes. These general notes are in addition to the specific notes set forth in the related Schedules and SoFAs hereinafter.

Note to Schedule “B”

Schedule B Disclaimer

The Subsidiary Debtors have provided their estimated view of the net value of their real estate assets. There is an ongoing sale process with respect to the Subsidiary Debtors’ real estate portfolio. The actual value of such assets will be determined through this sale process.

General Disclaimer

The Subsidiary Debtors have prepared the Schedules and the SoFAs based on the information reflected in the Subsidiary Debtors’ books and records. However, inasmuch as the Subsidiary Debtors’ books and records have not been audited or formally closed and evaluated for proper cut-off on the Petition Date, the Subsidiary Debtors cannot warrant the absolute accuracy of these documents. The Subsidiary Debtors have made a diligent effort to complete these documents accurately and completely. To the extent additional information becomes available, the Subsidiary Debtors will amend and supplement the Schedules and SoFAs.
