In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors used an umbrella credit line with American Express and certain other bank issued credit cards to pay certain recurring vendor charges. Certain of those charges were pending at the time of the filing. In some instances, a credit card company may have declined a charge after receiving notice of the bankruptcy filing. The Debtors have not yet received final statements related to the pending or scheduled charges. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve the right to amend the schedules and statement of financial affairs to accurately reflect claims resulting from declined credit card charges and payments made by credit card during the 90 days immediately preceding the bankruptcy filing.

4. Payments or other transfers of property made within 1 year before filing this case that benefited any insider

List payments or transfers, including expense reimbursements, made within 1 year before filing this case on debts owed to an insider or guaranteed or cosigned by an insider unless the aggregate value of all property transferred to or for the benefit of the insider is less than $6,425.
